

AIQUA

Italian Association for Quaternary Research announces a competition for the assignment of

TWO AWARDS¹

to support the participation of early career researchers to the

XIX INQUA Congress (Nagoya, Japan, 27 July - 2 August 2015)

The call is open to non tenured researchers, scholarship holders and research fellows. One award is reserved to researchers holding Italian nationality.

Each prize will be awarded to the first author (who must be also corresponding author) of the best work submitted for publication in the AIQUA journal, AMQ - Alpine and Mediterranean Quaternary, and presented at the 2015 INQUA Congress (either oral or poster communication).

The paper should concern the Quaternary history (climate, biodiversity, sea level change, human-environment interaction) and evolution of the Mediterranean Basin and surrounding regions.

Each prize consists in a bonus of up to € 1500 to cover documented costs of participation to the INQUA Congress (e.g. flight tickets, congress registration, accommodation).

The winners will be selected on the basis of the evaluation of papers submitted to AMQ by a jury, composed by the editor-in-chief of AMQ and two members of the international geoscientific community².

For registration submit title and abstract to : <adele.bertini@unifi.it>

For further information please contact: <amq@aiqua.it> or <andrea.sposato@cnr.it>

Deadlines

- December 20th 2014 submission of title + abstract
- December 23th 2014 AIQUA communication of acceptance
- February 15th 2015 submission of the manuscript to AMQ
- February 25th 2015 communication of results

² If none of presented works will be judged eligible, the prize will be re-assigned for the next relevant international conference (e.g. IGC, EGU, AGU).
